What is wrong with you? Do you like making up stories which is most likely relevant to your own life than mine? Why can't you be a good boy and just grow the fuck up? Excuse me, but I'm not the one who said he wouldn't drown in a pool of semen because he'd drink it up. shudders

Plus, I'm bored. I have nothing better to do for the better part of the next hour.

Umm that still was no call for what you did. I agree, who the hell would want to dress up as an animal? But that is below the belt for you, at least it used to be.
