Hey, I'm not saying he can't do as he pleases. I just think that for every action you take, there is going to be people disagreeing with it, and some loud about it. Quite frankly, I'm tired of all of this "tolerance" bullshit. Mostly because nobody is ever as tolerant as they profess. You guys are more than willing to profess "tolerance" for his lifestyle, but then when I make fun of it, I get 10 people jumping down my throat because I was being a complete asshole about it. Well, there went that idea of tolerance.

Could I have been more tactful? Absolutely. Is this the real world where my words actually fucking matter? Absolutely not. Seriously, people, get over it. We've all been more of an asshole than we should have been at some point.
