Do your selfs a favor and just shut the fuck up.

all of you.

If you don't give him attention, every topic on this forum wont be a pond of shit and piss.

So, shut the fuck up and sit the fuck down, all of you.

It's not like HORQWER's the only one shitting up the forums- it's also partially people that do stuff like you're doing right now, defending the guy who's made a complete idiot of himself since day one. This dude's been caught cheating multiple times, yet nobody gives a shit or does anything. If anything, all that post did is give him confidence to come back and shit up the forums some more.
