Do your selfs a favor and just shut the fuck up.

all of you.

If you don't give him attention, every topic on this forum wont be a pond of shit and piss.

So, shut the fuck up and sit the fuck down, all of you.

It's not like HORQWER's the only one shitting up the forums- it's also partially people that do stuff like you're doing right now, defending the guy who's made a complete idiot of himself since day one. This dude's been caught cheating multiple times, yet nobody gives a shit or does anything. If anything, all that post did is give him confidence to come back and shit up the forums some more.

Yeah we know, ban him from your server(s) and move on with life and ignore him when he makes himself look like a complete idiot.
