I thought I remembered the turret being that slow... but to be honest, it's been a long time since I've touched a Mammy. They're too slow and might as well be one big damn bullseye. Light, Med, Arty, MRLS, occasionally APC... STank or Flamer when there's a decent rush going. Maybe Orca or Apache if the team isn't already spamming them. Never a Mammy anymore- I'd rather be repairing or defending them.
