spreegemUltron10At least you have the guts to admit what you did.

Not many people can do that. *looks at AllGusto*
I've even heard now from quite a few people that he uses the Alt+F4 exploit in Generals. :rolleyes:

Anyway, you're forgiven.

Alt+F4 Exploit??

I haven't played Generals in a long time, but my guess would be closing the program through Alt+F4 gives the player a disconnect instead of a loss.

And Madtone: Admitting it was the noble and honorable thing to do, I wonder how many people would do the same thing when placed in your shoes.
