Like I said before, there are annoying glitches and glitches that are so overused that it has become normal and does not affect the gameplay in a bad way. If the second set of (good) glitches get fixed it will change the gameplay for a lot of people and this patch will not only stop the cheaters, but will also make normal players leave the game.

Cheating and annoying glitches have always been the things that fuck Renegade up... So I repeat,

PLEASE FOCUS ON THAT ONLY, AND PUT THE REST IN A SEPARATE PATCH.
