So aim for the head with the sbh, problem solved.

Hotty aim for sbh head, problem solved.

Works either way.

If the sbh kills the hotty fairly for going out, then the bar deserves to die. If you are the sbh that laid the nuke, you would say "gg" and probably say "haha". But if you are the hotty, you would say "wtf is this bs".

It affects everyone equally, so its still a fair advantage... btw, if it's 2vs2, where is your partner not helping?
