Oh, my God. WHY CAN'T WE JUST STAY OUT OF OTHERS' BUSINESS? We are far too involved in foreign nations.

South Ossetians voted 99% to secede from Georgia. The ONLY reason why it makes a difference for Georgia is that they want power and money. That's the only fucking reason that makes sense. That and holding people against their will must get them off.

Bush says we can't abandon those that have chosen "freedom". Yes, we can, because they have chosen freedom. Once you choose freedom, you accept the possibility that people will disagree and choose to exercise their freedom and leave. Why suddenly become statist? It's pretty fucking hypocritical if you ask me.

Oh, and fuck this current administration. I tried to be open minded about it. This is just frustrating. The arrogance that our foreign policy exudes is ASTOUNDING. We certainly don't want China bossing us around, so why the fuck do we think we can do the same to others? I'm tired of this invasive foreign policy. I'm tired of the current administration, and I'm fearful that nothing will change no matter which one of the two fucking idiots gets elected.
