However, I think the same people who think a fetus is a human and has feelings should also be against cutting off part of a male baby's penis. I am profoundly against circumcision and mostly against abortion. Like others, I wouldn't want an abortion ban to exclude certain circumstances where it is preferable. But, what if people just say it was rape since it often can't be proven?

Talking of the circumcision, I was watching Pen & Teller's: Bullshit on that, fucking inhuman!

I'm totally against it too, cutting off someone's manhood like that.

as for abortions, can't really give an opinion on it.. just woke up so I'm too tired for a wall of text.

Oh and Sarah Palin's daughter is pregnant at 17 years of age.
