Anyone who thinks this was caused by the current administration is simply wrong. The current situation in the Middle East is largely due to a series of events that have occurred since World War I... There have been plenty of other terrorist attacks against Western targets in the 90's, including embassy bombings in Africa.

The West have been treating the Middle East like crap for donkeys years, so in hindsight, September 11th was no surprise. I'm no fan of George Bush, but he, nor his administration executed, or played any part in these attacks.
