fix it by default, but have an option to "unfix" it. simple as.

same thing sadukar said, why have a fucking poll in the first place if the fact we won doesn't matter but the fact the "yes" side POSTED their arguments DOES make a difference? WTF? I was never told not to vote in the poll, just instead post my arguments and we would win again, thanks for the update guys!

Let's flip the argument, say the Yes side won by numerical, and No had better arguments, what would you say?
