2008 22:51Thats just weird. I'm all for keeping a child if it is alive, but thats just taking it to the extreme. I'd say kill the child and put it out of the misery that would soon come. It would be a mercy for it.

Now you've started a debate there, if someone is in pain should you put them out of their misery and would it be right to do so?

EDIT: Unless that was what the point of this thread was(that question^^)?

We're not talking about a man who's lost all his legs and arms in war, brain damage, no nerve system and is a total vegetable, we're talking talking about a.. ooh let's see.. 2 month old fetus, that WILL die very soon since it has no skin, barely any muscles, very small organs and probably no conscious mind.

that thing won't be able to grow another inch, killing it now wouldn't be murder.

hmm with my mind I reckon I should work at abortion clinics.
this shit to me is rough i still say it will be murder....i rather leave it in a hospital and let it die on its own nice and peaceful....
I think I'll just go with what you said SSnipe.
