Huh? RA2 was on a completely different engine, everything that is in RA3 was modeled completely from scratch...

Lone0001 wrote on Thu, 02 October 2008 01:23Another thing is they are also too lazy to make a new UI, it reminds me directly of General's UI.

Again, huh? How can it remind you of Genera's UI? I bet you haven't even seen RA3's UI. It is the same as C&C3's UI just with a new Naval tab and control bars on the bottom left & right of the screen.

General's UI was a sub-bar, not a side bar... it was completely different.

Nothing in RA3 is modeled from scratch they are using almost all of C&C3's models, look at the war factory if you don't believe me.

Sorry I meant to say C&C3, the same ugly Sidebar from C&C3(imo).
