"Due to BOTH Zama Flying AND Forest of Illusions being fucked up, we're holding off on the release.

We will NOT release a modification with only ONE level in it.

As we speak, I am working as fast as I possibly can to fix up both levels and make them work properly. Zama Flying will be done within three hours.

Forest of Illusions is next, vis solve will be ran, dynamic culling will be done.

We'll be done either tomorrow or Monday.

I am deeply sorry for the delays, but this is what happens in the gaming industry. Rest assured we ARE working as quickly as possible to get this done with.
