Goztow wrote on Sun, 16 November 2008 03:48 We used to have Siege, BunkersTS and Snow in the rotation as they're the only maps you can also play with a limited amount of players, in my experience. We had automessages and even the motd saying "download these three great maps at thekoss2.org/maps. To no avail. Only clan members and some regulars had them, all the others seemed to just refuse downloading them . I hope TT can help us overcome this problem, though from what I understood, it'll take some more time for them to finish the map downloader.

PS: nuke rush with harvester cover on mut redux FTW!

what is "TT"?

unbelievable, that the lazyness of some guys forces us not to play on such great maps and to have real diversification.
