I voted for him because as a single parent, I dont feel I pay enough in taxes. I also dont like the fact that I can see my doctor right away...I should wait longer like my friends in Canada and Scotland.

I also think that my employer should pay me $249,999 a year and not a PENNY more, because then I'd be rich and be taxed too much.

Oh wait, that number has changed to $50,000 now. That seems like a lot, but I make $34 an hour and I drive a 1994 with 140,000 miles on it, dont own a home, and can't save much.

Lets see...OH I KNOW! To get obama the HELL out of Chicago, as this town is screwed up enough.

Government can't do anything right, they cant even send me my license plate sticker on time, spell my name right on my car title, bill me correctly for my sewer & water, or send a letter across town within 9 days.

And you people believe this crap he said? Where is this "change"?

You guys probably arent old enough to remember Clinton's first term. "Worst economy in 50 years (a lie)" and "It ALL starts with a MIDDLE CLASS TAX CUT". So, he was inaugurated in the middle of January, and raised taxes, yes RAISED TAXES ON THE MIDDLE CLASS by THREE BILLION DOLLARS. Bush Senior said and did the same thing and got wiped for it. Clinton does it, on top of Bush Sr's tax increase, but calls them "contributions" and everyone's OK with it.

obama's health care plan is a JOKE. If you get coverage if your employer doesnt offer it, WHAT company in America would offer it then, if they dont have to offer one? Where is the money coming from to pay for it? YOU. The MIDDLE CLASS. The rich dont pay much taxes, and the poor pay ZERO.

So, you think your taxes will go down if everyone gets treated for everything? Why should I spend $10 on cough syrup and aspirin when I can get the care for free and get the government billed $300 for it?

You people that voted for him are either easily fooled, or stupid. His wife is a mean lady, and gets paid over $120000 a year as a "consultant" for a food company here. She's never set foot in the building. Nothing but a union payoff (Story in the Chicago Sun Times April 2008).

I'm union. Have been since 1995. Clinton fought for NAFTA and got it passed. Jobs have gone away, but they blame Bush, even Reagan.

I'm not even bringing up obamas drug use, his gay connection, his love of Bill Ayers, his lack of ever having a real fucking job, or ever wondering what it is like to barely pay your rent and not have 20 cents for a package of Ramen noodles.

Fuck obama, and all you idiots that voted for him. I want to laugh at the misery he will cause you all, but I would feel bad about it. Nobody deserves obama. Well, the Taliban and AlQuieda does, but obama wants to play nice with them and "negotiate".

I've spent 4 years in the middle east, and I would feel safer wearing a KKK outfit yelling the "N" word in South Central LA than I would EVER going back to Saudi or Kuwait ever again. Those people HATE us, no matter WHAT we do. No matter what we WILL do.

Was this post enough to continue the flame and to get people to hate me? I can add to it if you'd like

PS., I really HOPE obama will do the right thing. I dont know WHY he'd want to be president now, he must be retarded. But I just cant see him doing ANYTHING right. He's a bullshitter. Its easy to catch a liar when you've been in the military, been an advisor to a government official, had druggies as friends/family, and been a parent. obama is lying every time someone asks him a question. Just try to decipher his answers. He doesnt deny or affirm anything. He redefines.
