Oh I forgot.

Bill Clinton was America's first black president. Remember when he said that? I LOL'ed.

Being much older or younger than I am (38) and you have missed CLASSIC "WTF" moments in politics in America.

Like when George Bush barfed on the Japanese Prime Minister in January of 1992.

Or when he said "A new world order" which drove people insane with conspiracy theories (real and imagined), and spawned one of the coolest MINISTRY video/songs of all time.

"Mommy, I like President Clinton!" "Why, honey?" "Because Daddy said he has Flowers on his desk every morning!" (Meaning Jennifer Flowers, a lover that Clinton had Arkansas State Troopers drive them to secret places for sex, as well as soliciting women for him as Governor)

Ahh, I could go on. I wonder what asinine things obama will do that we can laugh about from our nuked-out fallout shelter eating canned beans from 1961. Renegade better be fucking playable or I'm gonna be PISSED
