Sc0rian, im sorry for changing my name to yours after you accidentally showed everyone your password in #n00bstories chat then i got op in your channel

I didnt mean to make things hard for you, i was just joking around and I didnt think it would hurt anything, but it did.

If you can find any way to forgive me of what I did, plz do. Im just really sorry for not thinking and acting with fun and pleasure instead of with my mind
