So I'm about 5 and a half months into that project, and I am already putting some of the local competition out of business because I kick ass. I am up to 7 employees, 2 full-time, 5 part-time, they are all poker dealers, and we have games every single night from 7PM until anywhere from 4AM to 8AM, and every once in a while, they run a full 24 hours into the next day. That's starting to happen more and more.

The most important thing is that the store is making enough money to support itself AND me so I don't have to try and cram some real job in there as well. It's even starting to make enough money so that I can have someone else watch the store so I can be away from it from time to time. As said, awesome. You should make Renegade themed playing cards
