More like Nod Venoms from C&C 3...but yes, EA did take inspiration for the Venom from the Skynet Aerial Hunter Killers (which is pictured in that poster).

This is great news for me. I am one of the biggest Terminator nuts! The Terminator series is something I cherish since it was the first ever movie (T2) I ever saw in my life! I have so many collections/memoribila of Terminator movies. I felt disappointed with Terminator 3 but always wanted a movie where it is set in the future where bands of humans fight against the bastardly machines...and I very happy such a movie is being done!

I just hope they don't screw up on the writing. The cast is awesome choices IMO...they look so similar to previous Terminator movie casts. They are even bringin in a Arni-look-a-like from Europe!
