and why is there a guy with his ass wide open with a red brick in it??? i couldn't even remove it.

The guys who added that Picture deleted all admin logs so no proof!

I'm leaving Eoxfire!

You are totally right, SuperGike.

The stupid Picture on top was the total death sentence for me.

But I deleted it again.- Waste of Time!

I think it was iAmHeyi who placed the picture there - The Latest Entry after I logged in was from him, he cleared the Admin Logs.

After this i have never seen him again! He was the "Main" Founder.

But it was so close that it ends in a disaster, after i logged in the first time i thought that it cant be true, a few users and that much Topics/Subtopics... Everyone is Mod/Admin...
Then my second Login - the strange Pic.
