I also think we should limit people with 1000000000 DPI mice to only having 100 DPI because that shit gives like a 0.0000000002% of extra super advantage.

Oh, and you assholes with 7.1 sound... go screw yourselves, you've got an advatange over us with stereo sound.

In fact, anyone with a computer from like, 2005-on should not be allowed to play either because their shits faster than mine.

Overkill much? I've got a G5, a G15, and 7.1 surround sound, with a computer that's from late 2008. Do you really want me not to play that badly?
