well i really like this skin.. as for the advantage, it's clearly one but probably not intended for that.. as for cheats and advantage skins as well, the usage of them should be up to the server don't you think? Sharing cheats/advantages aren't cheating when you tell people about them are they? It's up to the player to download them and use them.. that's why i think stuff like this shouldn't get delete as they have in the past..
