It doesn't have anything to do with the fact other people use it to host warez. In fact it makes a conscious effort to delete and ban users who upload wares.

So.. banning someone for using rapidshare is kind of... hateful. I think you should change the reason for the ban to "Posting a keygen." rather than "using rapidshare."
I never said he was banned for using rapidshare.

no, but it did sounded like that:

"10 days ban to Madrackz for posting Warez. Rapidshare ain't exactly the first location to look for trial versions, is it?"

follow the underlined, it just sounds like it.
