AircraftkillerDemolition manYeah and ren alert is so great because it has so many invincible walls for no reason. :rolleyes:

O now ack gets mad at me because i can't make better maps then him. :rolleyes: But don't worry i will be on vacation tomorrow so i can't reply to him probably.

Who says I'm mad at you? Just seems kind of weird for you to comment about anything relating to Renegade, seeing as how you bash everything about it since nothing went your way after the beta tests.

Oh yeah, "invincible walls" are something to poke fun at... C'mon man, articulate your thoughts before posting them.nothing went my way after the beta test? I sure liked the flying patch and some fixes they did.

I only don't see why you got in your map invincible walls when you could just make a mountain that would stop units. Or just make the cliff end and when they drive off they die.... there are more real ways to make an end on a map.
