PiMuRhoWhat about the "damage hack"? I've seen it mentioned on here, and today one of my admins banned someone for using it. While I didn't see it myself, the person he kicked was on 52000 points on Mesa, in a 45 minute game on a 24-player server. He was also apparently blowing up the harvester with a single shot.

I'm stil sceptical though - I thought all weapon/damage data was server-side?

If anyone has this damage hack, I'd love to see it. PiMuRho, I'll send you a PM.
