Anyway to have one 40 foot cord be able to connect to different things?
 I dont want to have to buy a second 40 foot cord to connect my printer if theres a way to have it be able to plug in both so on google i found this

http://www.instructables.com/id/E8JICT6K25EP287JWH/

look at step 6

Now imnot good at this but will that or anything work?

(I would do my printer wireless but only has wpa not wpa2 like I use)
