Yeah guys! That was real fun indeed. Was in this yearly game for the first time. I started to play renegade with rrutk (my bf who already plays for a long time) a year ago and got totally addicted to it

There should be more games with people who use teamspeak...great teamplay.. everything works so much better!

Sadly enough it ended too fast. I would have been awake all night for it, not only until 2 am. Came into play at hourglass and left in city flying after there were only three players left (

Too bad I forgot to take any pictures of my giant mammy destroying the Obby in Field

Thanks to all persons in charge for letting this happen anyway!
