Humans are at the top of the food chain for a reason. But that doesn't give us the right to act all superior to other animals.

We don't owe other animals anything. We should do what we want with other animals just as long as it isn't endangering our existence.

I mean, obviously beating an animal within an inch of its life is wrong.. animal or human. I mean, we should be able to hunt/kill/eat any animal we want to without a second thought. It's how the world is designed to work.
