He PM'ed me a few days before making this poll. He asked smth like: can my account be unbanned, I'll be good from now on (just like above). I told him that he was allowed to use the forums but under a different nickname because his old account was bound to his old actions. I actually told him that 4 times as he kept asking for it... and then comes this topic.

I'll just consider this poll as a poll for his presence then. If it ends up with "keep banned", I'll ban all his accounts. If it ends up in "unban", I'll unban all his accounts.
