Bear in mind that not all of that is entirely true, but you can get the gist.

Pretty much all of it was true. ACK used to be a self-important douche who was much to eager to put down and make fun of the work of new modders, while boasting about his own (sub-par) mapping abilities. Eventually, he ended up as a laughing stock because of some drama at the APB forums and left.

There's a lot that isn't mentioned on that page. You just had to be around for the 'mod wars' to fully know Aircraftkiller.

Hi guys long time no see

Ha Ha the "Mod Wars" I didn't realize that time period had received it's own name! But looking back, yes, it most certainly was

Do we have our own veteran society? actually thats a good addition for the sig lol halo38 is another muthical person and nice moder! love his work
