I like anti-armor infantry myself but if it came down to using one of the two, I would pick the Medium Tank. Its not like I don't like the mammoth tank or anything, its just that I'm too impatient with that slow son of a bitch .I think you should only use the Mammoth tank in certain situations too. Like supporting meds in field control or the like.

A major morale downer is Nod stealing a mammy. for some reason, GDI either acts frantically to take it back/destroy it, or they're just screwed altogether.
