I've logged into renegade online (westwood) and I believe at one time I checked off the auto log in box while I had typed in the wrong password.

Now every time I select something like advanced game listings, the game skips the login box and tries to log me in with an incorrect password resulting in this message:

Login to XCC Online Failed!

Strike Team: hhtp://strike-team.net/

Error: invalid password
Server: Renegade; SID: 163202; Nick: tydude187;

I've reinstalled it before and this worked at first, but then the next day for some reason it started again, and now reinstalling does nothing.

Anyone know I can stop it from auto logging me in?
