So now, you decide to release your stuff again on this forum, while you said this? ...

Quote:I ve Removed all my skins and posts from REN forums

Due to their negativity regarding my skins and posts anyway.

If u would like they are available elsewhere like RENBATTLE.NET

Bunch a dam Hypocrites if U ask me.

They think what they want, But I dont have to listen to it LMAO

I give ema name and it doesnt matter.

Anyhow, I will continue to play the way I always have and make skins,

They just wont get to see em or use .

I found some were examining my photobucket site and you tube sites and as far as I am concerned, they werent invited.

so to piss them off I removed stuff. If they were that efficient at hunting down cheats, they might find themselves the targets LMAO

Not that I care though. Looks good I guess, but I'm not a fan of such skins. I prefer to stay towards Nod Red, and GDI Yellow.
