He's the master of Renegade, by far the best player and well respected in the community. If you can get his clan =AC= site to link to your site, you'd have a successful site for sure.

Thanks for your helpful Info Mr Dover.

Would you happen to know what his site link is?

For future reference so I know when to submit to such endeavors once the site is off it's feet a lil bit.

Oh, of course. Sorry about that N1. Here's the link. AC stands for Anti-Cheat, and they're one of the only legitimate clans still in Renegade. Most other clans use cheats to win, but not AC!

And don't listen to Dark. He's trying to fool you. Get your site linked by =AC= and your site will be bigger than the public forums.
