Idk if this has been answered before, so don't bash me if it has. Just post a link to the topic ;x

But basically, when the tt patch comes out, how will players connect to the servers? Will RR, renlist, renip, etc still be used? Or will it be through wol and the advanced game listings like it was years ago? Or both like it is now?

Just thought I'd ask because it popped up in my mind and didn't know how it would work ;x
