hey ho guys, its been a while since i have been studying, i even banned myself from everything jelly so i couldnt be distracted as that was what made me lose so much time.

but with uni now over till september, and summer relaxation kicking in, i thought id get back to finishing my skin pack, for at least the vehicles anyway, here she is...

weighing in at a hefty 11+ hours, it was not a 10 minute job and easily the hardest vehicle to skin thus far, also i had to relearn how to use photoshop after my long absence all comments welcome as usual, since im still banned from the jelly website you guys are first in line, get it while its hot.

the others of the U-WBG are also in this forum somewhere on the 5th page and back if ur interested.
