Sorry for causing these guys to de-rail ur topic dover

The Exif data supports that you used Photoshop CS to make the image, but I have to ask why you didn't just copy your regular Renegade shortcut and rename it. That would've been easier. And it were really a joke, why didn't you make it obvious (Ah-la Ethenal)? Not saying I'm convinced you cheat, but if that was supposed to be funny it wasn't very good.

Agreed.
