Hmm,

While playing ArmA 2, I cam up with this idea for the NOD APC.

ArmA 2 has the BTR-90 as a vehicle ingame. The BTR-90 is a upgraded version (like) of the BTR-80, with a BMP-2 turret.

Now, a BTR-80 (Russian Army APC) fits more with NOD (and looks more like the NOD APC) then a Stryker (like) vehicle. NOD has history with Russia; they came out of a Russian group (mix of the Soviet star + scorpion tale; forgot the name of the group, but it was between the Red Alert and Command & Conquer universe) + NOD is a 'terrorist' faction. A lot of real world terrorist groups still use Russian weaponry, including vehicles. You hardly see them with NATO or American weaponry.

What do you think?
