With that said, it's the modding community that's keeping this game alive. There's many talented modders, for lack of a better word, that release new and intriguing things to the community that keep the experience fresh and entertaining for the rest of us.

I think these mods killed Renegade. When you look on WOL you will see old classic starting from Jelly servers and ending in n00bstories.

Others modded servers (Im not gonna name it) totally destroyed main point of game which was originally released by Westwood Studios.

That's my point of view.

My point of view is that the immature and stupid who do things like flood and cheat are making it harder and harder for the rest of us to run our communities and enjoy our old ass game.
