Griever92Xtrm2MattWild1Thanks for the notice. :rolleyes:

Do you always have to post pathetic, spamming posts??

Ya wanna know what spam is, its a post that basically has Nothing to do with what the forum is based around, Floods the servers, etc. What you have just posted can also be considered spam. Wild1 was simply acknowledging what i had said.

Any way... does anyone know the current status of RenAlert? I heard it was being released in the next few days?

You havern't seen his other posts then, have you?
