The CW.cc community is hosting a huge tournament that will bring some excitement back to Renegade. The renegade forums have already agreed to help with anything needed. Together we are hoping to make this tournament fun and something to remember for ages! I am inviting all communities to participate in the tournament. Below you can see all the details of the tournament.

2. Building Points (BP) - If neither community destroys the others base, then buildings that were destroyed on each side will be added up. The community with the most building points will advance.
WF, STRIP, BAR, HAND = 2 BP
All other buildings = 1 BP
Turret + GT = 0 BP
3. Total Score (TS)- If their is a tie in building points, then total scores will be added. The community with the highest total score will advance. If their is a tie in total score, then a third round will be played with random sides.

BD --> BP --> TS
If both BD --> Time limit
If both BP equal --> TS
If both TS equal --> Third round random sides

Prizes:

n00bstories has generously donated $200 worth of cash prizes!!! 1st place will receive $100. 2nd place will receive $60. 3rd place will receive $40.

I think it would be hard to ask the same roster of players to make every round of the tournament. So each round communities may go into the tournament with a new sign-up of players if they wish. This will also give a chance for more players from each community to contribute. A community may also choose to stick with the same roster the whole tournament.

Sign-up:
1. CW.cc (Mr.Mom)
2. Jelly (Jelly)
3. Ex0dus (Arnyswart)
4. Shadow-Team (Adad)
5. Atomix (Xpert)
6. {Os} (Moeze)
7. The Koss2 (Goztow)
8. [NE] ([NE]Fobby[GEN])
9. Tsunami Gaming (TsuScorpio)
