As far as I know, but correct me if I'm wrong because I've never bothered to know much about ren's history, she wanted to run this forum for the community, she wasn't asked to do so. What bothered us (and I know for sure it's the same feeling for lots of server owners) is that she's using this forum, which is meant to be run for all communities, for her own community's interests. I can agree on what you said, Goztow, but only if what's happening here happened on NS's forums (which happened).
We couldn't promote our community/server here because she used that word filter to change exodus to faildus/exofail, and that worked for URLs too, so we couldn't even link our forums.
Now I now that this is owned by her, but this should be a place for everyone involved in Renegade, not for only the ones that she like.
She also never miss a chance to to spread lies (or her own truth) to everyone here, even when it wasn't needed. The shit started on this thread was because she had to make fun of us once again, without a real need.
If you know our reasons why we left NS, you should also understand how WE feel when this happens. That happened for a mix of reasons, one of which was her insulting and arrogant behavior against us, and seeing that happening again for no reason here, made me post all this stuff.
So yeah I can understand how she might feel, but you should also understand how WE feel on this matter too. It's not a one way street, and if this forum was ran as she said it is, then we wouldn't have our name banned from here or our posts/threads deleted.
How should we feel?

We're not surprised that this shit happens, we're just sick of being constantly insulted by her, even after we left her community also because of that.

So yeah I won't expect you to take a position, but also think about how we feel when she throws shit on us, not only how she might feel.
