No one will be affected though, unlike here. Which is a totally seperate entity to n00bstories mind you. So instead of keeping mindless button pushing on n00bstories, it is also brought here.

Care to quantify the term "administrator abuse" and "mindless button pushing"? I'm not quite sure what you're refering to. I'm talking about poinless thread spam, like this one and "n00bstories childish behavior".
