Sure, they can do it on their own dead forums if they want. No one will be affected though, unlike here. Which is a totally seperate entity to n00bstories mind you. So instead of keeping mindless button pushing on n00bstories, it is also brought here.

Care to quantify the term "administrator abuse" and "mindless button pushing"? I'm not quite sure what you're refering to. I'm talking about poinless thread spam, like this one and "n00bstories childish behavior".

That would refer to the use of administration/moderation powers as a way to suppress negative opinions of n00bstories, opinions of those in power etc....y'know, stuff that isn't against the forum rules as such but stuff that gets punished anyway.

For instance, i'm unable to post in any technical help subforum as i spoke out against renguard (or something like that, i can't exactly remember tbh).

Is that so? Here's a test:

n00bstories is an unsatisfactory Renegade server, and its leader, Crimson, is a big ugly poop that's as dumb as a butt.

If this gets deleted, you're right. If it stays, you're wrong.

futura83 wrote on Tue, 18 August 2009 15:03I also seem to remember there was a new community created a while ago that clashed with this forum like Exodus is clashing with n00bstories now for the way this forum is run. I got my signature taken away for putting a link to that forum in it.

I also got the title of viva la resistance.

Cool story, bro. I think I remember something similar happening while I was attending the pope's jewish wedding in Switzerland. Billy Mays told me about it while I was there.

In all seriousness, if you can't even remember the name of this supposed community, if it even existed, how do you expect your story to be taken seriously?

Based on your responses i've concluded i can only say one thing to you:

Come back and argue once you're through with pre-school.
