You all are talking like being registered on our forums means that their speaking on our behalf. Even if we could agree with whatever our registered users will post around, that's surely not an official representative of Exodus.

Yet, you do agree with him, don't you? You certainly aren't retracting his words or distancing yourself from his opinion. Exodus's position is being made pretty clear.

I don't understand; I've never thought anything bad of you but you're in here shooting shit across the room in a situation you barely know the circumstances of. What gives?
