blahh its a great idea, crush kill destroy, we will see who the victor is, im a bit overly confident in st0rm but thats just me, tbh even know im not in this whole renegade tournament its quite exiting that the top leading rival communities are gathering for a, well global renegade showdown, bragging rights are at steak for the winner, i have a feeling that who ever wins will have its plastered all over their forums for some time to come, XD.

this should be a regular event at least once very 6 months
