I don't think it should be 'conversation worthy,' but rather just 'understandable.'

For example:

A thread in which the original poster types simply "Pie!" should be allowed.

However, a thread in which the original poster types 3,000 lines of "oagadgiuangergnregneiguenhagnedgienrgaieougnaeroig" shouldn't.

That also goes for single repetitive sentences/words. Like saying "Pie" 40,000 times in one post.

There is spam, then there is spam. The ladder is just annoying and consumes too many resources.
