Subject: What if Renegade (2) was made by different company?

maytridyI've always thought about, back when Renegade was still pretty popular, that the whole Ren community would join up and make a Ren 2. I mean, if we had every scripter, modeler, mapper, skinner, etc. in the WHOLE Ren community, I think we could make a really cool game. But I don't think there are enough people who could cooperate.

I can cooperate with any one I want to, because no body has pissed me off yet.
